R. 11876, a Bill to Fix the Compensation of Certain Employees of the United States, March 20, 21, 22, 23, 27, 30, and April 3 and 5, 1916 The committee this day, met Hon. James P. Maher presiding. Mr. Maher. A quorum being present, we will start the hearing on House bill 11876. Is there any regular order in which the persons interested will proceed? Mr. Nolan. I think we will have to map out some satisfactory program, Mr. Chairman. I understand there are a number of people here from different sections of the country, particularly from the eastern section. I understand also there is one man on the way from San Francisco, representing the civil-service employees out there, who has not yet arrived. I think, after we have an opening statement on the part of the representatives of the American Federation of Labor, as to the position of that organization, we might give some consideration to a plan whereby those from outside of Washington may be heard first, so that they may get back to their positions. A great many of them, as I understand it, are here on leave. It might be a good idea to take a list of all those representing the civil-service employees here in the District, and as fast as we can conveniently hear them we shall call them, so that they will not be losing time, but can be on call. That, however, is a matter we can determine before we adjourn for the lunch hour. This bill, which is...
