By Kay Walsh

Christian Focus Publications Ltd, United Kingdom, 2010.
Paperback. Book Condition: New. Reprint. 168 x 109 mm.
Language: English . Brand New Book. I can't see! It's dark everywhere. What place is this? Where am I? Jeya was only four years old and was terrified as she tried to peer about the dark and gloomy temple. Between the pillars was a huge stone body. She shivered when she saw its face. This, she knew, was Kali, the goddess of death and destruction. Why was Jeya there? Who would leave a little girl in the dark like that? Certainly not the God of love - he sent a woman to rescue these children from destruction - Amy Carmichael. And she had been a little girl herself once a little girl with long dark hair, and deep brown eyes. Once she had even begged God to make them blue - but he hadn't. And as Amy leaned over to pick little Jeya up and rescue her from a life of temple-slavery - she was very glad that God hadn't listened to her prayers. Blue eyes were not the eyes of India - but Amy's brown eyes were.

Reviews

This ebook is worth purchasing. It is written in straightforward words and not hard to understand. You will not feel monotony at any time of your respective time (that's what catalogs are for about in the event you ask me).

It is simple to read easier to understand. I am quite late in starting reading this one, but better than never. It has been designed in an exceptionally easy way in fact it is just following I finished reading through this publication where basically transformed me, altered the way I really believe.
