Excerpt: .only State whose exposition is now ready is one of the New England States, Massachusetts. The superintendent of the schools of Maiden, Mr. Gay, principal of a high school, has been charged by his State government to organize this exposition, and he has kindly done the honors of it for me. I looked with interest through the exercise books of the scholars from the first school year until the ninth. These have been made with reference to the Exposition, but according to the customary habits and methods. There is a school in which all exercises are written with lead pencil, at least for several years, and they have been written in the same way for Chicago. It does not seem to me that the Massachusetts scholars do better work than ours at the same age; they write more legibly in very big characters and retain...
