Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Stories for Worship: And How to Follow Them Up Teachers and parents, as well as superintendents and pastors, are involved in the effort to lead children into the experience of worship. This handbook provides not only the material for services, but also a method by which the church-school worship or the pastor s talk to children may be followed up in class or home. We expect in the services themselves, if they are well conducted, a response in the way of imagination, of feeling, of will on the part of the children. But if we let this stirring of their aspiration and their loyalty end here, the worship will have failed of its purpose. There must be further response in thought and action, and this must be provided for by the school and the home. The service must be followed up by discussion in class or around the Sunday dinner table, and by opportunities for the conscious use of the moral invigoration of worship in the practical problems of everyday living. The book, therefore, includes not only the story material and programs needed for the leader of the services, but also suggestions for the guidance of discussion in class or home, and for testing the value of the services by careful observation of their effects. With this manual in the hand of every teacher at the time of the class session, there may be developed such community of effort as will enhance the value of the worship many fold. The stories are for the most part new or not widely known. The organization follows a plan that has been worked out experimentally, by which the...
