Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Visiting Nursing in the United States: Containing a Directory of the Organizations Employing Trained Visiting Nurses, With Chapters on the Principles, Organization and Methods of Administration of Such Work This Directory is issued for the purpose of showing what is being done in this country through the services of the trained nurse in what has for many years been known as District Nursing, and in the more recent extension of her activities in tuberculosis, school (medical inspection), social welfare, and other more general social work. It is hoped also that the book may be an assistance to those who are planning to establish new societies for service along similar lines. Every effort has been made to gather information regarding the various organizations throughout the United States that employ visiting nurses, and the statements contained in these pages are based upon facts gathered from annual reports, letters, and replies to a set of uniform questions which were sent to each organization. Probably some have not been reported, and others may have been created since this Directory was placed in the printer's hands. Revision in the near future will undoubtedly be necessary, and any omissions can then be inserted and mistakes corrected. Associations employing trained visiting nurses are therefore earnestly requested to report all errors or omissions, and to send to the writer their annual reports. By this means accurate information containing the latest developments of the movement may be included in the second edition. For obvious reasons, societies having nurses who are neither graduates of training schools nor pupil nurses are not included in this record, however admirable their service may be. Sincere thanks are...
